End Point Assessment

End point assessment (EPA) is an assessment of the knowledge, skills and behaviours that your apprentice has learned throughout an apprenticeship, which confirms that they are occupationally competent.

Assessments have been designed by employers in the sector and are conducted by independent bodies known as end point assessment organisations (EPAOs).

The apprentice will only get their apprenticeship certificate after they have passed all the elements of their EPA, including any required standards in English and maths.

What does assessment involve?

Each apprenticeship includes an end point assessment plan, which describes how the apprentice should be tested against appropriate criteria, using suitable methods. For example, your apprentice may need to complete:

- a practical assessment
- an interview
- a project
- written and/or multiple-choice tests
- a presentation
- professional discussion

We will inform you at the beginning of the apprenticeship what the assessments are involved. This will give your apprentice plenty of time to prepare. For example, they may need to gather evidence to show how they've been working towards the core knowledge, skills and behaviours required.
